

Why study A Level Politics?

Lively, relevant, controversial... there are many ways to describe A Level Politics. There's no denying that it's one of the most interesting and engaging qualifications you can choose. Covering news and current affairs from the UK and US, it helps you understand how the UK is run and develops research, written communication and debate skills. It also helps grow your confidence!

It's ideal if you're considering studying politics, sociology, ethics, advertising or journalism at university and is highly regarded by employers in industries including politics, international organisations, the media, government and the civil service.

What will I study?

You will study 3 major topics:

1. Government and politics of the UK
2. Government and politics of the USA and comparative politics
3. Political ideas

Assessment

100% examined.

Paper 1: written 2 hour exam on the government and politics of the UK.

Paper 2: written 2 hour exam on the government and politics of the USA and comparative politics.

Paper 3: written 2 hour exam on political ideas.

Study trips, visits and events

As a new course, we can work together to build an offer of trips and visits, likely places would include destinations such as the houses of parliament in London.

Subject entry requirements

5 in English Literature or Language.

NEW COURSE FOR SEPTEMBER 2021